The Sister Celeste Ciesielka, CCW Memorial Library

Sister Celeste Ciesielka, CCW was a native of Portage and originally a parishioner of Sacred Heart Church. She was born on October 3, 1956, and died on December 15, 2020, from Covid-19. A member of the Carmelite Community of the Word in the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese since August 18, 1981; she served in roles of pastoral ministry and pastoral education in numerous locations and served in spiritual director roles for Cursillo and Third Order Carmelites. She was a Caseworker for Catholic Charities and a Hospital Chaplain in Altoona.

The community of Portage was blessed to have her with us at Holy Family Parish as her final assignment before going home to the Lord. She was hired in a part time position as a Pastoral Minister to the Sick and Homebound. Her experience led her to train others in this ministry and evolved into also ministering to grieving families as funerals were planned and celebrated.

Her hours were increased twice to where she was a full-time staff member. Before her death, she was steadily increasing her outreach in ongoing formation for adults. She kept up with her own reading and always had a watchful eye open for opportunities for us to offer a course or a series to adults interested in learning more about their faith.

The Carmelite Community of the Word donated her personal library of resources to us that we might share them and continue her ministry. Those books have been catalogued by a volunteer parishioner and are now available to parishioners to borrow. The pages that follow is a listing of those books, by title. If you wish to borrow a book, please contact the Parish Office (814-736-4279) and arrange with Julie or Pam for them to pull the book from the shelves and have it available for you to pick up. God Bless and Keep you, Sr. Celeste! We miss you!
